About Me

Courteous and enthusiastic professional with 4+ years of experience in various domains. Highly skilled in designing and developing single-page applications by deploying angular, typescript, etc. Expertise in HTML, CSS, JS & Figma to build all aspects of user experience for the landing page. Proficient in developing databases, creating user interfaces, writing and testing codes, troubleshooting simple/complex issues, and implementing new features. I'm naturally curious, and constantly working on improving my skills.
